

WINTER HAVEN, FLORIDA'S OWN

Comedic Genius Jim Stafford teams up with Country Music Star Moe Bandy to host the 2011 Carnival Legend Cruise!

The Jim Stafford Show is always fun and fresh with comedy, especially when Jim visits with the audience; things happen differently each show and can be hysterically funny. It wouldn't be the Jim Stafford Show without his chart topping "Spiders and Snakes." Folks love the "Cow Patti" segment — and California thinks they have happy cows portion of the show. Cruising the open seas is always a party, but cruising the Caribbean with Jim Stafford is a real trip! This is a cruise that you don't want to miss.

Stafford has operated and performed at The Jim Stafford Theatre in Branson, Missouri since the 1990s. His children accompany him on stage.

Stafford contributed to several movie soundtracks, including The Fox and The Hound and Any Which Way You Can, in which Stafford appeared. His work has been covered by music greats, George Jones and Jerry Reed. His second classical guitar album, Somewhere in Time appeared in March 2002.

Country Star Moe Bandy to bring the BEST of Country Music to the open seas!

Moe's first big hit was I Just Started Hating Cheatin' Songs Today; it came at a good time. It was 1975 and Moe had decided to "hock everything" for just one more recording session. Moe has had many more hit songs and five Gold Albums. Bandy the Rodeo Clown was the first #1. After that first # 1 hit, 39 other # 1's quickly followed.

The tone of Moe's songs has changed a bit over the years. "Til I'm too Old to Die Young is a touching song that parents love, "Let me watch my children grow, to see what they become ... 'til I'm too old to die young." Americana is another very moving song, "Pictures of a people proud and free." Americana became the theme song for the first President Bush's campaign in 1992 and began a friendship between the two that still exists.
